SATURDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 19, 1864.

News of To-day.

Deserters say Lee's army of 12,000 men is nearly destitute and unfit for duty.

Col. Farrar, learning that 3000 head of cattle had crossed Black river, and were to cross the Mississippi to recruit rebel supplies, made a raid, captured 1000 head and stampeded 2000 head more.

They have different rumors to-day. Holt is talked of as Secretary of War, and Stanton as Chief Justice.

The enemy were supposed to be massing upon Grant's left, and an attack was expected.

Sheridan's cavalry have had a fight after several days' skirmishing. Enemy's loss 100 killed and wounded, two guns, and 150 prisoners.

Beauregard is with Hood.

Gen. Canby has been shot by guerillas, on White river, and dangerously wounded.

The American consul at Bahia has arrived at Washington. Seward will apologize to Brazil.

Sherman is in good spirits, and is really marching through Georgia; and peace rumors are rife in the streets of the Capital, founded upon Gen. Butler's late speech in New York city. It is said Georgia proposes to secede from the Confederacy whenever our armies, led by Sherman, will take Charleston and Savannah and hold them. They may have a chance before long to do so.

Gen. McClellan's resignation is accepted. Sheridan has been promoted to the vacant Major-Generalship on the morning of November 8th. He was a captain in the regular army, from which position he was promoted to be major-general.

The next Congress will stand, Union, 127; Democratic, 42—overwhelmingly Union in sentiment.

The Union majorities for Lincoln at the late election foot up to about 450,000. McClellan's majorities are about 30,000.

Richmond papers accept the result as leaving them only victory or extermination. The European Congress has in consideration the Roman question, which settled, she will have peace and disarm her armies.

Secret Political Societies.—Mr. Simonton, editor of the San Francisco Bulletin, in a portion of his correspondence, that we copy to-day, gives particulars, in brief, of "secret associations and conspiracies against the Government in the Western and Northwestern States."

We ask our readers to note well the facts discovered, especially as we have positive proof that secret societies—probably the same and for the same purpose—have been organized in our midst, and no doubt the excitements at Salem and Forest Grove, mentioned heretofore, owe their origin to the existence of these infamous lodges.

Five hundred thousand men in the West and Northwest are banded together, armed, organized and drilled in the cause of the Confederacy, under the name of Democracy.

Their principles are said to be—a disbelief in the power of the Government to coerce a State; they claim to judge the Constitution for themselves; and that they can resist the authority of the Government when they deem it unconstitutional. They were armed with carbines and revolvers, and Judge Holt, of Kentucky, to whom the work of investigation was committed, says the specific purpose of the order was to encourage desertions, resist the draft, give intelligence to the enemy, assist him to arms, ammunition, and men, &c.

There seems to be no doubt that the same organization, for the same political purpose, is in our midst, and if such is the case let us keep watchful guard of them. "Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and while we have no doubt that the people of Oregon are, as a class, loyal and peaceful, still, with the aid of rebel deserters and members of this same conspiracy from the Western States, who are emigrating hither to aid those here, they may at any time become formidable to our peace and liberties.

Let every Democrat ponder well the state of things surrounding him, and let those who love their country take heed lest they gradually become drawn into a vortex of sedition and treason they little dream of now.

Let all men who prefer the Union to disunion; who prefer peace to war; who respect government and law; who shrink from the treason that has forced us into civil war, reflect and calmly decide whether they can longer sympathize with and be allied to a political party that shrinks from the news of Federal victories; that can find words to denounce their own Government, but not the rebellion; that calls to its support, by natural affiliation, the vile, the traitorous, and the ignorant in every section, and are willing, at least in part, to plunge the North into fratricidal strife.

Pacific University.—We understand that Professor Marsh has obtained—mostly in Portland—a subscription of about $3,000 for the benefit of the University. This sum is a deserved help to an institution of great present and future interest to the highest and best interest of the State.

This is an evidence that an intelligent liberality prevails among us.

The desire and intention is to raise $6,000 before the effort is relinquished.

Cross-Road Jack.—This individual was lately killed in a row over a faro game at Idaho City—shot by a man whose name is not given.

Bystanders considerately kept the parties supplied with pistols, until one of them got his quietus.

Loyal Irishmen.—The Nevada Gazette says that most of the Irish in that precinct voted the Union ticket. In other localities this vote was divided, contrary to the usage in former years. In Nevada some thirty of that nationality voted, and not exceeding five voted the Copperhead ticket.

A Reform in Manners.—The Paris correspondent of the London [illegible] says that the Jockey Club, [illegible] the fashionable world [illegible], have [illegible] that the English [illegible] shaking hands is henceforth to be [illegible] the correct thing; and, furthermore, in order to protect ladies from the annoyance of having to return the bows of any man who may choose to take off his hat to them in public, the English fashion is to be adopted of [illegible].

Lapland is for sale. It has been suggested that the British Government purchase it for a penal settlement. It would furnish but cold comfort for criminals.

Lincoln's majority [illegible]

Umatilla and Baker.—[illegible] from Baker county give its [illegible] election [illegible] tion, though not full. [illegible] heard from when they [illegible] were democratic last spring, and [illegible] heard from, McClellan ahead 29 [illegible] posed that he may have [illegible] in. It was rumored that [illegible] majority for McClellan. Those who were [illegible] from the polls at Auburn [illegible] Powder river and [illegible] larity allowed there. [illegible] McClellan, democrats coming there from all parts around to carry that place. Majorities for McClellan—Auburn, 13; Union, [illegible]; Powder river, [illegible]. For Lincoln—Humboldt Basin, 12; Clarke's creek, 33; North Powder, 2.

The Union Majority in the State.—The result in this State differs so much from last spring vote for Congressman, that the Democrats claim they have achieved a substantial success in not being beaten any worse than they are.

The Union victory is a substantial one nevertheless. Had the election taken place three months sooner, the total vote would have been considerably less than it was, and the Union majority fully equal to that of last spring.

Many strangers voted throughout the State who were not legal citizens, and the greater part of them voted for McClellan. Judging by this city, the whole Democratic gain was of that class. Then the Democracy made extraordinary efforts. Quite a number of prominent men who came out at first for the Union side, and found their ancient prestige as political leaders gone, have turned over to McClellan, for the reason that with prophetic eye they expect in the next coming year to see a large emigration arrive here from Missouri and Arkansas, many of whom having been rebels to the Government, there, are naturally chosen candidates for Democracy here.

This aid is expected to boost them again into power and place, but the game is not made yet, and this card may not win. With all this defection—a whole-sale defection, by-the-bye—and despite all the voters imported from abroad, we are handsomely victorious, and we intend to be victorious the next time, because we believe we are right, and that by proper efforts we can make the most of the people believe so too.

We wish the opposition joy of their recruits lately claiming to be with us. If we had wanted to keep them, and had valued their distinguished (?) services, we could have retained them by a judicious system of promotion. The conclusion is a very plain one.

The Northwestern Conspiracy Against the Government.—The excessively elaborate report just made by Judge Advocate Holt in regard to the secret associations and conspiracies against the Government in the Western and Northwestern States, must satisfy whoever reads it that nothing but the system of "arbitrary arrests"—of which our Copperhead friends complain so much—has saved the Free States from being plunged into a chaos of disorder and reign of terror in the interest of the slaveholders' rebellion. The actual number of persons connected with these secret lodges is estimated at about half a million—the number which Vallandigham some time ago stated it to be. One of the principles of the order is that the Federal authority cannot coerce a State, the Federal power being of itself devoid of sovereignty, and only exercising for certain purposes the sovereignty of the several States when authorized by them to do so! Another of its dogmas is that when the Government is administered contrary to the strict letter of the Constitution, it is the inherent right and imperative duty of the people to resist the authorities and compel them by force of arms to act constitutionally. To sustain these views these secret associations armed themselves with revolvers and carbines, purchased in the Eastern markets, until checked by the interference of the Government, and the "arbitrary arrests" of some of its ringleaders. Judge Holt declares he has abundant reliable testimony to prove all this, and to show that the specific purpose of the order at present is to encourage desertions from the army, resist the draft, circulate disloyal documents, give intelligence to the enemy, aid him in recruiting and in obtaining arms and ammunition, and promote the establishment of a Northwestern Confederacy in alliance with the South. It was because the Government nipped this conspiracy before it had become too strong for control that Vallandigham projected into the Chicago Convention his resolution complaining of the Lincoln Administration for depriving the people of their "right to bear arms."—[illegible]

Fatal Affray at Walla Walla.—The Virginia Union of November 8th has the following:

Dr. Gleason was stabbed on last Saturday evening at [illegible] City, by C. D. Hunt, a partner of the Copperhead paper, [illegible]. The account of the affair, as we learn it, is that Hunt and several friends of his went into Stevens' Saloon to take a drink, when a political discussion arose between Gleason and Hunt, both Copperheads, in the course of which Gleason slapped Hunt in the face with his hat. Hunt [illegible] followed, when Gleason drew his revolver and shot at Hunt, missing him. Hunt drew a knife and they came into close action. There was heavy skirmishing with [illegible] Merritt, who fell back, drawing the enemy on to where the Union forces were in position, when the rebels fell back. On the 12th skirmishing was resumed between the opposing cavalry, when the same plan of feeling was pursued, it being Sheridan's design not to bring on a general engagement. Seeing the enemy would not be induced to follow our pickets, Sheridan ordered Powell to advance, when the enemy were driven back to Front Royal, with a loss of several hundred men killed and wounded. Powell captured two guns, 150 prisoners, several wagons, and a number of horses. Our loss is said to be [illegible].

CLEANSE THE BLOOD.

WITH corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood you must be sick all over. It may burst out in pimples or sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and [illegible] the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring [illegible] and repelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurities of the blood, such as Scrofula or King's Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ring Worm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal D[illegible], Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases.

This valuable Medicine is now available to the public for the cure of

SCROFULA, CONSUMPTION, RHEUMATISM, CANCER,
HEART, LIVER AND KIDNEY DISEASES,
NEURALGIA, NERVOUS AFFECTIONS, BRONCHITIS,
DYSPEPSIA, &c.

AS A TONIC,

its operations are evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increasing the appetite. In cases of Dyspepsia, Emaciation and Debility, an increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order, with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping over you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Le Doyen's Sarsaparilla, and cleanse out the disordered system—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again.

A Word about Roads.—The mail route from this city to Lafayette, via the Canyon to the county line of Multnomah county, was never in better condition—from the county line to Hillsboro the road is being worked some little. A bridge is in course of construction across a low swail of about 100 yards, which will be above high water mark, in the vicinity of Mr. Hall's farm, eight miles from Portland. This will be an important improvement both to the farmers and the mail contractors. A bridge has also been commenced across the Tualitan river, which is constructed by the citizens, and it will extend across a bottom for some distance, heretofore in very bad condition, between Hillsboro and Forest Grove, on the mail route. The attention of the authorities is directed to a portion of the road between the so-called Thompson farm and Chehalem valley, which is said to be a Government, or Military road, and which is in a most dangerous condition. The people in the vicinity through which the road passes to Lafayette are desirous of doing all that is possible to keep communication open, but it falls heavily upon the sparse settlements, and the fund from which the section alluded to must be repaired should be looked up. We are informed of these particulars by Mr. Amasa Hoyt, mail contractor, who upon two occasions of late has run narrow chances of losing a horse.

The City at Law.—As will be seen by reference to the Circuit Court proceedings, the trial of the case of Garrison vs. City of Portland consumed almost the entire day. This is a suit brought for the recovery of damages sustained to the person of plaintiff by falling into an open, unguarded cistern, when running to a fire about two years since. There is a similar suit pending before the present term of Court for damages sustained to the person of M. Morris, by falling into the gulch at the foot of Jefferson street some two months since. The old case of the City vs. Leland and Stout, for the recovery of title to North Market Square, block 17, which has been hoisted from Court to Court, and finally taken from Clackamas to Wasco county on a change of venue, will be heard in Circuit Court which meets at the Dalles on the first Monday in December.

Frightful Accident.—A Mr. Williams was fearfully injured by the explosion of a shot gun, with which he was shooting ducks on Lewis river, a few days since. The gun was heavily loaded with fine shot. An double barrel, in firing one of which they both exploded. The left hand was literally blown to pieces, the right one badly injured and the face considerably burned. The accident is almost unaccountable, but as the gun was an old one it is supposed the barrels were burned and the rusty apertures open sufficient for the ignition of powder between them, and the free discharge being prevented by accumulated rust an explosion followed. Our informant states that Mr. Williams will be brought to this city for medical treatment.

Theatrical.—There was decidedly a good turn out at the benefit given Miss Ince at Willamette Theatre last night. The play of Ion, or the Foundling of Argos," was produced, and represented in as fine style as was possible from the embarrassing circumstances of a lack of proper scenery on the stage, and sundry "crying babies" in the audience. The latter prevented us from discovering one "witching smile" from an appreciative listener, and we are in no good mood to give a description of the parts performed. To-night a superb bill is offered.

Circuit Court.—Col. Charles H. Larrabie of Wisconsin, and W. F. Trimble, Esq., of Kentucky were admitted yesterday Attorneys and Counselors at law in the Circuit Court. John Donlon was admitted a citizen of the United States. The case of John Garrison vs. the City of Portland occupied the entire day in the examination of witnesses and the hearing the arguments of the counsel: Messrs. Page and Strong for plaintiff, and Messrs Mitchell and Dolph for the city; closing about 8 o'clock P. M., when the case was submitted to the jury.

Not Exact-ly.—People have been curious to understand what was the "situation" of certain edifices now in the course of erection on the south side of Madison street. They are built projecting nearly the usual width of a side walk into the street, but are upon the line of the block, and the pedestrian must go around them if he would get by. We presume it will be a matter for future consideration, and in case the streets should not follow up their march "down town" some one, it may be the city, can have them moved back.

Prairie Schooners.—There were on our streets yesterday a pair of genuine freighters, capable of bearing up much more merchandise than the squashy condition of Oregon roads will allow in a wet time. One of these was drawn by six, and the other four mules. The drivers were enjoying their repast about dusk last evening, seated around a blazing stump in Clay street, their wagons headed in the direction of Eugene City for an early start to-day.

Arrival of the Steamer George S. Wright.—Captain Lewis of the steamer George S. Wright which arrived from Victoria last evening, has furnished us with full files of papers from the British Possessions. The Wright brings Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, a number of passengers, and freight to the amount of 80 tons, which is reported in the commercial column.

A Smash "Down."—A farmer arrived in the city yesterday with a wagon load of grain, which had been hauled forty miles over bad roads, but our streets proved too much odds against the strength of the vehicle, and it "come down" at the crossing of Salmon street, on Front.

Bell for Corvallis.—There is a very fine bell at Couch's wharf in this city, awaiting shipment to Corvallis. We presume its echoes will call the denizens of that pleasant little burg to Church or public meetings of some other character, although we have not been tolled exactly for what particular purpose it is intended.

Treasure.—The treasure box of Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, by the steamer Wilson G. Hunt last evening, contained nearly $80,000 in gold and silver bullion. The season of mining has been closed for some time, but the flow of treasure does not seem to close with the season.

Memoranda.—The steamer Geo. S. Wright, S. F. Lewis, Master, left Victoria Nov. 16th at 2 o'clock P. M. Crossed Columbia River Bar on the 17th at 2:30 P. M. Arrived at Astoria at 5 o'clock P. M. Changed Pilots and left at 10:20 P. M. Anchored in a fog and grounded at the mouth of the Willamette, out of the channel. Arrived at Portland at 8 o'clock R. M. the 18th.

WEEKLY COMMERCIAL REVIEW.

Portland, Friday November 18th—2 P. M.

There is little doing in the domestic trade to-day and few changes to note from our last week's quotations. The receipts of country produce are light in consequence of the withdrawal of farmers' teams from the roads, which have become almost impassable, with the annual fall of rains. The weather for the past few days has brightened up a little, but we cannot expect much more intercourse with the interior by wagons the present season.

The steamers of the People's Transportation Company have been making trips to Salem and intermediate points, during the week, but from a notice published elsewhere to shippers, stating that freight will be stored at Canemah for points above Salem until further notice, we infer there is little prospect for the immediate resumption of regular business above the Falls, or until a greater rise of the river. It is said there is an immense quantity of produce above awaiting opportunities to be forwarded to this place.

The bark Adelaide is the only vessel that has cleared during the week, and she did not receive any cargo from here, being chartered for a cargo of lumber from Oak Point to San Francisco. The schooner Crosby is now loading for Victoria.

The steamship Brother Jonathan, which cleared for Victoria and San Francisco on Wednesday, carried nearly half a million in treasure, besides a liberal quantity of breadstuffs and fruit.

There is less demand for most kinds of country produce, and the latest prices are noted below:

FLOUR—The brand of "Imperial Standard Mills" has been changed to "Savier & Co.'s Imperial Mills," and will hereafter be known as Imperial; the standard price of $10 remains unchanged; Standard Mills, Milwaukie, is quoted at the same; $9 [illegible] bbl.; Country brands generally are offering at $8 75.

WHEAT—The best quality White commands $1 60 ℔ bushel; there is a moderate demand for all kinds, but indications point to a downward tendency. [illegible] sks Oregon wheat sold in San Francisco on the 10th at less than $4 ℔ cwt.; Red wheat is seldom offered; commands $1 45@$1 50 ℔ bush.

BARLEY—Scarce and in moderate demand for export at 3 cents.

OATS—Steady. Buyers are offering 70@75 cents.

BACON—The market is not overly stocked, and there is little doing. One small lot closed out at 18½ cts for shipment. We hear of transactions ranging from 17 to 20 cts. The principal figures would seem to be about 17@18 cts., offered.

BUTTER—Nominal at 30@37½ cents.

EGGS—The standard price appears to be 55 cts. ℔ doz.

POTATOES—Quiet at an average of 75 cents ℔ bushel, except for choice lots offering at $1.

POULTRY AND GAME—There is a good demand for all kinds—Chickens, grown, command $4 50 ℔ dozen; Turkeys $15@$18 ℔ doz.; Wild fowls $2 50@$3.

Wholesale Prices.

Portland, Nov. 18th.

Wholesale transactions for the week have been less in a corresponding ratio than for many months previous. The stocks on hand are quite full, and the prices remain the same with few exceptions. The alterations will be noted below.

SYRUPS—E. B. ℔ gallon 5-gall. kegs from 65 to 70 cts. E. B. 8-gall. 62½.

SUGARS—Sandwich Island 1st 11@11½; N. O. 14@16½; S. F. Ref. 16; Powd. 20; Crushed in bbls 18; China No 1, 11.

TEAS—Common 65@$1; Imperial and Gunpowder 75@$1; Oolong 75@$1; [illegible] 65; Imitation Japan 50@75.

COFFEE—[illegible] Costa Rica 25 cents; Java 30.

SALT—Liverpool fine ℔ ton $10; Carmen Island $30@$35 ℔ ton.

San Francisco Markets.

San Francisco, Nov. 1[illegible].—Our markets for Flour and Grain are beginning to droop under the prospect of free importations. Flour from Chile can be imported and laid down here at $8 ℔ bbl., and Wheat at 2½ cts. ℔ lb.; and [illegible] that large shipments of the former may reasonably be expected here during the next six months. Barley is lower, and Oats are easier to the buyer. We note free sales of stock [illegible] Oregon superfine Flour at $8 87½; [illegible] Oregon Oats $2 [illegible]. Sales of Oregon Bran are noted at $22 50, and [illegible]. [illegible] Eggs [illegible] California [illegible] in fair demand at [illegible] for Butter, [illegible] for good to fair [illegible]. A sale of National Mills Extra Flour, for the use of the French navy in Chile, [illegible] terms. The arrival [illegible] of the brig Sultan, from San Pedro, with a cargo of Barley and Corn, has a depressing effect upon the market, especially as the supply is [illegible] from the South, of the [illegible] product.

A Greenback Case.

HAVING been compelled to accept of Legal Tender Notes at par since the 17th day of December, 1862, for the rent of my handsome Brick Store, corner of Morrison and Front streets, I feel compelled to announce for the benefit of the public at large, that leased the building of me on the 17th day of February, 1862, for a term of years, at which time there was no such currency in vogue, and thus understood the terms were CASH. Since the date above stated I have received the depreciated currency regularly under protest for the rent of the CITY OF PARIS STORE,
Making less than two-fifths of the real amount said Mayer was to pay. He had secured the building at very advantageous rates, and even were he now to comply with his contract, and pay in COIN, would be getting the best bargain in the city. I make this statement to show the public what kind of a man he must be to take such undue advantage of the times to save a few dollars to himself by LEGAL SWINDLING. The public can readily see what it costs to have such tenants.

NOTICE.

THE attention of the public is called to the following act passed by the Legislative Assembly of this State at the last session:

An Act to prevent Indians and half breeds from unlawfully running at large, and to punish white persons for enticing them from the Reservations.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon: It shall be unlawful for any person to entice, induce, or persuade, any Indian or half-breed who habitually resides with Indians, to leave the Indian Reservation or territory where such Indian or half-breed belongs, or to harbor or conceal such Indian or half-breed, or to countenance or encourage, or in any way assist such Indian or half-breed to escape from, elude, or evade the agent or superintendent having charge of the tribe, unless such Indian or half-breed is absent by the written consent of the superintendent or agent aforesaid.

Sec. 2. Any person who is guilty of a violation of the first section of this act shall be liable to a fine of twenty-five dollars for the first offense, and not less than fifty nor more than one hundred for each subsequent offense, to be recovered in any action for debt before any circuit or county judge or justice of the peace in this State.

Sec. 3. All fines collected under this act shall be paid one half to the person making the complaint and the other half to the common school fund of the county where the offense was committed: Provided, That nothing in this act shall be construed to interfere with fishing rights reserved to Indians by treaties with the United States.

Sec. 4. In order that the white settlements may be promptly relieved of the presence of vagabond Indians, this act shall be in force from and after its approval by the Governor.

Approved Oct. 21, 1864.

The efforts hitherto made by the Superintendent and the several Agents to rid the community of straggling Indians, have often been thwarted by thoughtless or evil-disposed persons who, through acquaintance with the Indians, have acquired an influence over them. This law affords a remedy for the evil, and the Indian Department will endeavor to have it rigidly enforced. The co-operation and assistance of citizens are respectfully requested.

Information of the whereabouts of vagabond Indians may be forwarded to the Superintendent's office at Salem, and will receive prompt attention.

HOSTETTER'S
CELEBRATED
STOMACH BITTERS.

THE OPERATION OF THIS PALATABLE REMEDY upon the stomach, liver and intestinal organs is singularly soothing and conservative. It regulates, relieves and repairs them. The spirit in all cases yields to its comforting and invigorating properties.

Invigorate the System.

Vigorous digestion and pure blood produce nutritious blood, and [illegible] healthy frames. Does the victim of a dyspeptic stomach and a disordered liver desire to know how the digestion may be improved, the bile and other fluids of the body purified?

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters

Will accomplish this desirable revolution in the system, regulating the [illegible] and excretions, giving tone to the animal juices which dissolve the food, strengthen every relaxed nerve, muscle and fibre, and bring the whole machinery of vitality into vigorous and healthful play.

Strengthen the System.

The best means of imparting vigor to the broken-down frame and shattered constitution, which has yet been invented or discovered, is proffered to the public of both sexes and all ages in

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

Debility, from whatever cause arising, may be cured; strength, in whatever manner it may have been wasted, only be restored by the use of this powerful and healthy invigorant. For indigestion and all its painful effects, bodily and mental, they are a positive specific.

A Word to the Aged

In the decline of life the loss of vital force consequent upon physical decay can only be safely supplied by some vivifying preparation which recruits the strength and spirits, without entailing the exhaustion which is always the final effect of ordinary stimulants. We tender to the aged

Dr. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters.

As an invigorant and restorative, immediate in its beneficial action and permanent in its effects. It tones the stomach, improves the appetite, and acts like a charm upon the spirits.

For Females:

Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility, and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which, as a sex, they are subject. It cheers and enlivens the depressed mental powers, as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any reaction.

Oysters! Oysters!
Louis McMurray & Co., Baltimore.

THE ATTENTION OF THE TRADE IS PARTICULARLY requested to the above favorite brand of oysters. Messrs. McMurray & Co. claim to be the only firm that still adheres to the plan of opening the oyster in its raw state by hand, thus preserving intact its native delicacy and flavor. The superiority of this method over the common general use of steaming the oysters in bulk, in order to open them, whereby the natural juice is lost and a manufactured one has to be substituted, is apparent, and commends itself to all who have given this brand a trial. The undersigned are receiving fresh invoices by each arrival of clippers from New York, which they offer to the trade on favorable terms.

DEATH OF CHIEF JUSTICE TANEY.—From the San Francisco Bulletin of the 15th we clip the following interesting items of editorial correspondence from New York city.

The death of [illegible] Chief Justice Taney [illegible] a very general discussion [illegible] It was successful, we may be well assured, [illegible] rather than exact [illegible] of human nature, [illegible] dispenser of law, he should have been able to divest his mind altogether of the prejudices of education in favor of the slaveholding section to which he himself belonged. The grand error into which he fell was the gratuitous attempt to settle a great issue by judicial decision—gratuitously because when the Judge declared that the Court had no jurisdiction whatever in the case, he gave an abundantly sufficient reason for refusing to take a decision of the Constitutional questions incidentally connected with its merits. So when the people found Judges of Southern birth going out of their way to decide a political issue in accordance with the views of their own section, and Northern Judges taking the opposite side in the same case, they naturally lost something of faith in the impartiality and wisdom of the Supreme Court, and suspected it of being influenced by sectional and partisan feeling. Upon a question of law not before them for decision, the opinion of the Court was worth no more than that of any other set of men of equal intelligence and education. The people refused to tolerate the doctrine that the Constitution, by its own force, established slavery in all the Territories, making it a national rather than a local institution. They resented this judicial attempt to foist upon them the doctrine of John C. Calhoun; and thus Judge Taney's way attempt to allay sectional excitement had directly the opposite effect, and hastened the armed conflict between the opposing principles of freedom and slavery.

The removal of Judge Taney by death, just at this epoch of the national crisis, would almost seem providential. Had he lived and been able to fasten his Dred Scott opinion upon the land as law, he would have made human slavery paramount and superior to freedom in the land. Congressional protection to slavery everywhere would have been established as a duty, and the section of the Montgomery Constitution securing the "right of transit and sojourn in any State with slaves and other property," would have been secured to the slaveholder. Thus the National Government, instead of being the guardian of freedom, would have become the champion of slavery, and been bound to advance its interests at the expense of natural justice. Judge Taney's death changes radically the Supreme Court, just when such change is of the highest importance; because at the close of the pending war there are several great questions to arise in connection with the rehabilitation of the rebellious States, which must be adjudicated by it. The vacancy of course will be filled by some jurist whose convictions are in accordance with the Union principles and anti-slavery sentiments which henceforth will control the executive and legislative branches of the Government. Thus we may expect to see the Supreme Court in harmony with the fundamental principles of our Government as recognized by its founders, and in harmony, too, with the policy imposed upon the country by the necessity of destroying the present rebellion and every possibility of its recurrence in the future. Who the new Chief Justice shall be, may not be decided long before the meeting of Congress, as there is no special haste in the matter. Among the names most prominently mentioned for the position is that of ex-Secretary Chase. Judge Advocate Holt is also spoken of; but the ex-Secretary of the Treasury possesses such superior qualifications for the high post, that it seems out of place to couple any other name with his.

Judge Taney has not been in very good health for some years past; but the immediate cause of his death was chronic disease of the bowels. He was confined to his bed, however, only about ten days, and died without a struggle a few hours after taking leave of his family. Whoever his successor may be, he will have accomplished much when he shall have attained a position in the public confidence equal to that which the late Chief Justice commanded.

[PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.]

LAWS OF OREGON.

Acts passed at the Third Regular Session of the Legislative Assembly.

AN ACT to provide for and regulate the offices of County Treasurer, County Assessor, County Surveyor, and Commissioners of the County Court.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, as follows:

Section 1. There shall be elected at a general election by the qualified electors of each county in this State, a County Treasurer, County Assessor, County Surveyor, and there may be elected two Commissioners of the County Court, who shall hold their offices for the term of two years, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Sec. 2. A person is not eligible to either of the offices mentioned in section 1, of this act, unless he is a citizen of the United States, a qualified elector under the Constitution of this State, and a resident of the county wherein he is elected for the period of one year next preceding his election.

Sec. 3. The term of office of the officers mentioned in the first section of this act shall commence on the first Monday of July next following the election of such officers, and before entering upon such offices, or either of them, the person elected thereto must qualify therefor by filing with the county clerk of the county wherein he is elected, his certificate of election, with an oath of office endorsed thereon, and subscribed by him to the effect that he will support the Constitution of the United States, of this State, and faithfully demean himself in office, and also give and file the undertaking hereinafter provided.

Sec. 4. If a vacancy shall happen in the office of County Treasurer, County Assessor, County Surveyor, or Commissioners of the County Court, the County Court of such county must appoint some suitable person to fill such vacancy, who shall hold such office until the next general election thereafter, and until his successor is elected and qualified. A person appointed to fill a vacancy in either of the offices mentioned in this section, before entering upon such office must qualify therefor as in the case of a person elected to such office.

Sec. 5. The official undertaking of a County Treasurer must be given to the State in a sum not less than [illegible] thousand nor more than fifty thousand dollars, to be fixed by order of the County Court, with two or more sufficient sureties, who must be residents of the county, and have the qualifications of bail upon arrest. The undertaking must be approved by the County Court and filed with the County Clerk, and may be substantially in the following form: Official undertaking of Treasurer.—Whereas, at an election held on the [illegible] day of June, 18—, A. B. was duly elected County Treasurer for the county of [illegible]; we, C. D. and E. F. hereby undertake that if the said A. B. shall not faithfully keep account for and pay over according to law, all moneys that may come into his hands by virtue of his office, and otherwise well and faithfully perform the duties of such office, then we, or either of us, will pay to the State of Oregon the sum of [illegible] dollars.

Sec. 6. The official undertaking of a County Assessor, and County Surveyor, must be given, approved and filed in the manner prescribed for the official undertaking of a County Treasurer, but the amount of such undertaking must be [illegible] thousand dollars; and such official undertaking may be in substantially the same form as a County Treasurer's, substituting the name of "county assessor," or "county surveyor," as the case may be, for that of county treasurer. A Commissioner of the County Court is not required to give an undertaking.

Sec. 7. When it satisfactorily appears to the County Court that the sureties in an official undertaking are dead or insufficient, or have removed from the county, such court upon reasonable notice to the officer giving such undertaking, must require him to give a new undertaking, with sufficient sureties; and in default of compliance with such order, the office is to be deemed vacant.

Sec. 8. The sureties in the official undertakings herein mentioned must justify before the County Court as bail upon arrest, and their justification must be filed with the undertaking.

Sec. 9. The officers mentioned in Sec. 1, of this act, shall hold their offices for the term of two years from and after the first Monday of July next following their election, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

Sec. 10. The general election at which such officers, or either of them, must be elected, is the general election next preceding the expiration of the term of the then incumbent of such office.

Approved Oct. 24th, 1864.

AN ACT to enable the Courts to enforce the specific performance of certain contracts.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon, as follows:

Section 1. That the several courts within this State, in giving judgment or decree on a written contract for the payment or delivery of gold coin, or gold and silver, or any other kind of lawful money specified in such contract; and in giving judgment or decree for the recovery of money received on deposit, or as agent or trustee, or otherwise, for the use of another, shall, if either party require it, adjudge or decree that the principal sum so contracted, or so received, and the interest thereon, but not the costs of the action, or suit, shall be paid in the kind of money so specified in such contract, or in the kind of money so received for the use of another.

[illegible]

AN ACT to provide for the registry and protection of Trade Marks.

Be it enacted by the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon:

Section 1. That any person, partnership, firm or corporation, desiring to secure to himself the exclusive use of any name, mark, brand, design or description, for any article manufactured, or for any hall, hotel, factory, machine shop, or other place of business, shall deposit [illegible] with the Secretary of State, a [illegible] of such fac-simile of such mark, brand, name, design or description, as he may [illegible].

Sec. 2. If there be not already on file with the Secretary of State [illegible] brand, design or description [illegible] record the one furnished [illegible] and kept by him for [illegible] at all times [illegible]. If the said design [illegible] brand, name [illegible] description, that Secretary shall so inform the [illegible], and shall not [illegible].

Sec. 3. Any person, partnership, firm or corporation, that shall use or [illegible] mark, brand, designation or description, the same as or similar to one so secured as aforesaid, for the purpose of [illegible] goods, shall be liable to the owner of the name, mark, brand, designation or description so [illegible], one-half of the property, goods or articles of trade upon which the same may be used or placed, or the value thereof, to be [illegible].

Sec. 7. [illegible]

Approved October 21st, 1864.

Proclamation.
